

Bachelor Dens Wiped Out by An Early Fire

W. H. Larmer suffered a considerable loss from fire last Monday morning when three of his shacks were destroyed. Bill was getting breakfast and the stove overheated and set fire to the wall. It was well started before Bill got next to it and by the time he aroused his tenants there was no time to save anything in his own cabin. One building was occupied by Wm Grants Agency. Mr. Grant, being up early that morning was able to get almost all of his stuff out, except what was in the safes. H. Berge, tenant of the third shack did not pay much attention to Larmer's alarm and went to sleep again, but the second time he was aroused he made a hurried exit with the fire just a half a leap behind. He lost everything, and nearly lost his pyjamas too. Citizens did a lot of good work in protecting other buildings near by. Mr. Larmer carried insurance on the buildings. These cabins are among the older buildings of Hazelton and have witnessed both romance and tragedy, also a little burlesque and some humor.

PRESENTATION TO MR. FOWLER

Members of St. Matthews congregation gathered at the rectory on Friday evening last to bid farewell to F. C. Fowler who left Saturday for Smithers to assume his new duties as manager of the Geo. Little lumber yards at that point. Over fifty friends were present. Rev. A. W. Robinson was the spokesman of the evening and on behalf of the gathering expressed their regret at his departure and as a mark of their esteem and of their appreciation of his faithful and valued service in the church asked him to accept a pair of cabins. Mr. Fowler has always taken an active part in church and Sunday school work. He was also leader of the Trail Rangers. Following Rev. Robinson, D. Burnett, on behalf of the boys club, presented him with a handsome bedroom clock. Mr. Fowler very ably expressed his appreciation of the good feeling which existed between himself and the church people and stated that he had always enjoyed his association with them. A program of music was given in which he following took part:—Rev. and Mrs. Allen, Rev. Robinson, F. C. Bishop and Mrs. Robinson. After the ladies served refreshments some time was spent in games and community singing. The removal of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler from Terrace leaves a place in church and lodge circles that will be hard to fill. Mrs. Fowler an daughter will be here for a short time until Mr. Fowler secures a home for them to move to. They take with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

QUICK NEWS

Some of the brood sows have been doing very well but in some cases the whole litter has been lost.

W. L. Padden and Joe. Bussinger went to Smithers Wednesday.

Last week Miss McKnight, Miss Lane, John Pearson and D. T. Green were up to the big smoke.

J. Pearson left for the south on Wednesday to start the season's bridge work. Before he left he gave Kerr Bros. a contract to do more ditching on the swamp fraction.

J. Palmear is out ploughing timothy sod ready for grain.

Bigland and Sheppard shipped more oats west last week.

Most people got in on the ground floor and sold their oats at $27 to $31. Some appear to have donated their's entirely to support local industry, but others again are now getting $41.50 for oats, all the same grade.

Up to May 1 many of the farmers had not been on their land and some had just started. D. T. Green started seeding wheat May 3 and oats later. The weather was unfavorable, but judging from all reports it is a great deal worse elsewhere.

The road drags were out and improved the road as far as Lowe's farm.

Joe. Bussinger had a runaway recently and he landed on his head, but other than being stiff is apparently none the worse.

The tie loaders cleaned the yards last week and some folks will soon be rather stakely.

Mike Wakefield has a new saddle poney that will show the boys some thing new about barbecue time.

E. A. Mortimer has returned after seven and a half months in the Alberta coal mines.

Jas. C. McIlroe of Prince Rupert has purchased fifteen acres of the S. C. Weeks estate at Kitsumkallum from J. A. Kirkpatrick of Prince Rupert and he intends to go in for mixed farming with small fruits as a side line. The soil is particularly adapted for strawberry culture. Five years ago "Dad" Weeks berry patch employed nearly all the local pickers. He did well with his strawberries. The land purchased is west of town and across the road from Henry Franks place.

Walter Warner of Rosswood was in town the early part of the week.

May Pole For Victoria Day's Big Celebration

The new feature for the Twenty-fourth of May celebration in New Hazelton will be a May Pole dance which is in charge of Miss Richardson and she is working hard getting the boys and girls ready. The children of the two Hazeltons are participating. At a meeting of the citizens last Tuesday night Miss Jessie Smith of the Herald staff was elected May Queen.

Committees for the various branches of the celebration were appointed and are now at work. There will be doings on the athletic grounds in the afternoon and a grand dance at night. An invitation was received from the Smithers people for New Hazelton to co-operate with them in the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation on July 1st.

Wedding Bells

OHNESORG-SCHMUCK

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized in the Catholic church, Prince Rupert on Thursday last when Mary Ann Schmuck, recently of Terrace, was united in marriage to Alois Ohnesorg of Prince Rupert. Rev. Father Godfrey of Ocean Fall officiated. The bride wore a gown of pale salmon pink with hat and coat to match, and she was attended by Mrs. Mering who wore pink georgette with hat and coat to match. The groom was supported by the bride's uncle, Jon. Spitzel of Terrace. After the ceremony the wedding dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wernig, Ninth Ave., west. A number of friends of the contracting parties were present. The best wishes of Terrace friends is extended to the newly married couple.

EGAN-ALLARD

A quiet wedding was solemnized in the United church at 2.30 on Thursday afternoon last when Miss Christina Allard, daughter of the late Maxine and Mrs. Allard, of Duncan, B. C., was united in marriage to Alfred Egan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Egan, Australia. Rev. G. G. Hacker officiated. The bride is the niece of Matt. Allard and Mrs. W. Warner of Kalum Lake. The groom, who has been mining in the Kalum district for a number of years is well known about Terrace and the best of wishes is extended to the newly married couple. The bride and groom left Sunday for their home at the head of Kalum Lake.

MOTHERS' DAY SERVICE

On Sunday, May 8, in connection with the services in the United church there will be special services at New Hazelton at 11 o'clock and at Hazelton at 7.30. Everyone is cordially invited. Wear a flower in honor of mother.

HOSPITAL DAY, MAY 12

The program for hospital day in connection with the Hazelton hospital is being got into shape and the hope of those having matters in hand is that the day will be the most successful yet held. There will be something interesting on all the time.

The Ladies Guild have changed their regular meeting day to every second Tuesday for the summer months instead of every Thursday.

Telkwa Tales

John Gould and James, of Houston were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Slavin.

The tie loaders are busy here much to the relief of the hackers and sub-contractors. Most of the ties cut are now hauled in.

On Sunday morning last Capt. J. P. Wheeler, supervisor for the Soldier Settlement Board met Jas. Taylor and family and took them out to their new home on the C. H. Sell property adjoining the Prudhome place. Mr. Taylor is a farmer from Scotland and is the fourth family that has been placed in the district this spring under the British Immigration scheme.

When Chas. Barrett was down last week he purchased from Thorp & Hoops a Case threshing machine for his timothy seed crop this year. Mr. Barrett is one of the largest growers of timothy for seed in the province and one of the first to go into that line in the north. He also bought a tractor-tandem disc harrow.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ovens were sorry to learn of his intended departure at an early date. For a number of years Tom has been accountant in Broughton & McNeil's store and has been generally liked. He and Mrs. Ovens will go with Mr. and Mrs. Murray to Bellingham, Wash first although Tom thinks he will end up in Ontario.

John Bain of Vancouver has been engaged to succeed Tom Ovens in the office of Broughton & McNeil.

There were services in both the churches last Sunday. It is understood that an effort is being made to hold services in the United church regularly in future.

L. Shorn, the veteran of the hills, is once more out with his pick looking for something even better than what he has yet discovered. The Grouse mountain district is his favorite hunting ground.

Mr. Harris who is in charge of the operations on Grouse mountain was in town over the week end, the first time since the first of the year. They have been driving steadily all winter and have accomplished a lot of under ground work. He expressed himself as satisfied with the look of the property thus far.

There has been considerable staking of mineral claims on the Dockrill farm this spring and also on adjoining farms. Years ago some of this stuff was staked, but since the Topley strike anything is liable to be staked now.

The Terrace basketball teams enjoyed a bean feast in the G. W. V. A. hall on Saturday evening. During the evening occasion was taken to present Dr. Turpel, with a handsome smoking set in appreciation of his services as coach and general director of the team during the past season. Following the presentation the evening was spent in dancing. It was a very fitting wind-up to a pleasant season.

Mrs. Warne, Dr. Taper, Al E. Little, Jas. Smith and N. York jointly entertained six tables at bridge last Friday evening at Progress Hall. Miss Malot and Geo. Little won the first prizes and Miss Sibray and O. T. Sundal got the consolation prizes. After refreshments the orchestra started up and a very jolly dance was enjoyed.

Splendid Dance Was Given by W. A. to H. H.

One of the nicest dances and also one of the most successful that has been held here for a long time was put on last Friday evening by the W. A. to the H. H. in Assembly hall in Hazelton. The new officers and members of the organization deserve much credit. The hall had been very nicely decorated by Mrs. Winsby and it looked well. The music was by Mrs. Chappel and Bert Cox who gave their services and incidentally gave good service and good music. Then Len Graef was on the job all the time as floor manager, and he was good. There was a splendid crowd from both towns and they all had a good time. The ladies who had charge of the refreshments did their part with satisfaction and dispatch. The proceeds were over $80.

VETERAN BUSINESS MAN

Disposed of his Business in Smithers to a Young Man from Prince Rupert

The local district will be greatly interested in a deal which was closed in Smithers the end of last week whereby J. Mason Adams, druggist, retires from active business in Smithers and W. V. Tomlinson of Prince Rupert is the new druggist for the interior. Mr. Adams will, however, remain in Smithers for some months to clean up an accumulation of matters and also look after the post office. It is about fourteen years since Mr. Adams left Hazelton and opened in Smithers. Since that time he has prospered to a degree almost satisfactory to himself. At the same time Mr. Adams has made and held a host of friends in all sections of the interior. Many will regret his retirement from business and his removal from the district. The loss of Mrs. Adams and family will also be regretted in Smithers social circles.

Mr. Tomlinson is a fully qualified druggist with ample experience. For years he has been with Ormes Limited in Prince Rupert and is not a total stranger in the north. He should be a valuable addition to the business and social life of Smithers.

PRESENTATIONS MRS FOWLER

The members of St. Matthews W. A. met at the home of their president, Mrs. T. J. Marsh on Monday afternoon to say farewell to Mrs. A. F. Fowler who is shortly moving to Smithers. About 25 were present and Mrs. Robinson, on behalf of the auxiliary, presented the guest of honor with a pair of hand made slipper pockets and also expressed the regrets of the members at losing her valuable services. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Fowler was again the guest of honor at a farewell held at the parsonage by the Ladies Guild of Knox church. On this occasion she was presented with a beautiful bureau scarf as a mark of appreciation of her faithful work in all church circles. Tuesday was also the anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fowler's wedding and wedding cake was included with refreshments. Mrs. Fowler will be much missed by the ladies of Terrace.

Born—In Terrace on Friday, April 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Sillas a daughter.

The mining laws of this Province are more liberal and the fees lower than any other Province in the Dominion or any Colony in the British Empire.

Mineral locations are granted to discoverers for nominal fees. Absolute titles are obtained by developing such properties, security of which is guaranteed by crown grants.

N.B.—Practically all British Columbia mineral properties upon which work has been done are described in some one of the Annual Reports of the Minister of Mines. Those considering mining investments should refer to such reports. They are available without charge on application to the Department of Mines, Victoria, B.C. Rev. T. D. Proctor Writes Of His Big Trip to Europe

Hazelton, B.C.
The Mission House

For several weeks we have not been able to continue Rev. T. D. Proctor's trip, due to Mr. Proctor's illness. This week we are able to resume the story and it will run for another two or three weeks. We left off in the city of Berlin and will continue with some thing of Victory Avenue.

Victory Avenue is a very wide and beautifully laid out street. On either side are sixteen very large white marble monuments about 250 feet apart. They have been erected to the Brandenburg, and Prussian sovereigns, 32 in all. These statues were erected by the late Kaiser. It was indeed a wonderful sight to see all these huge monuments along the avenue with the Victory column at the top. We then saw the University of Berlin, the Library, Restaurant Ave., Belle View Castle, Monument to the Unknown Soldier, City Hall of Charlottenburg, built in 1892 and under Victory Arch which is the boundary line between Berlin and Charlottenburg. Then we were taken to a massoleum where the father and grandfather of the emperor are laid with their wives, Augusta and Louise. They are white marble tombs with carvings of the departed on the lids. In the anti-room is a statue of Peace, and the carved figures of these four personages, all reclining in the main room. A wonderful blue light is shed over the room to represent the shadow of death. It had a wonderful effect. No talking was allowed and one certainly felt as if one was in the presence of the dead.

On our return journey we were taken to a beautiful rose garden, supposed to contain 3000 different kinds of roses, and they were all looking their best. We passed on through the Botanical gardens and Exhibition Park and on to the Forest den Linden. Arriving back in good time for dinner, an hour earlier than usual to permit us to attend service. The service in the Lutheran Cathedral was very nice, but everything being in German it gave one an idea as to how foreigners feel attending an English service and not knowing the language. After the service we took a stroll through the Tiergarten which is composed of trees, lawns and gardens. Music could be heard from every side and in the still evening it was very impressive. The next thing was to take a taxi home. In Germany instead of constantly holding up tourists for tips they would take you to the wrong hotel, or else take a round about way in order to make the meter registrar about twice as much as one should really pay. However, if one did not know the way you were at their mercy.

This was the last evening that the party was to be together, the majority leaving the next day for Bremen where they were to board ship for New York. The next day, August 10, was a free day for final shopping and packing up the many purchases and making out lists of same for customs officials at this end. All were up bright and early, many of the ladies had trouble at the hair dressing parlors in explaining just how they wanted their hair done before going aboard. Many of the party were in fear and trembling of the strict medical examination which was to be meted out to them at Bremen. After lunch all were busy with their autograph albums, exchanging of snap shots and extending invitations for future meetings. Some of the party were extending their trip to Holland and Belgium, others to the Rhine and some were staying in Germany (Berlin) to take up music. Three of us in the party who had sailed from Canada decided to stay two extra days in Berlin instead of going on to Bremen, and later go direct from Berlin to Hamburg. However, by 5.30 all day now had gathered at the station for farewells and for many it was very sad for we had been one big family for six weeks. The train finally pulled out leaving only a party of 12 out of 52. Those of us who remained decided to go to the Western Theatre and a pleasant evening was spent witnessing a German play.

The next day we decided to take a side trip to Potsdam on one of the big touring busses. We gathered at 9 at Unter den Linden. The day had all appearances of being a very hot one but it was glorious. We first toured the city and then travelled through the great forests of Potsdam for lunch. After lunch we entered the Royal chapel where many trophies and flags of war were stored. We then rode on to the Palace of Frederick the Great, one of the most magnificent palaces yet seen. Beautifully laid out in some 400 acres of land the palace itself was built on a knoll from which terraces ran down to a beautiful lake. From the palace could be seen the beautifully laid graves of Emperor Frederick's horses and dogs for he was a lover of both dogs and animals. We then entered the palace and passed through the many rooms, all of which were elaborately furnished. One room of note was Voltaire's who was a favorite of Emperor Frederick. Many of Voltaire's writings were produced here and the majority of the Emperor's books were in French for he did not consider the German language good enough for the cultured people. We then passed into the room in which he passed away, the chair in which he died remaining in the same place. Throughout the palace there were elaborate gifts from every nation in the world, consisting of tapestries, monuments of gold, silver, alabaster, amber, and marble, also many beautiful paintings. We then went to the late Emperor's new palace, but by this time our interest for palaces was waning for we had seen so many and most of them were laid out in the same style, each one trying to outdo the other in extravagance and splendor. What impressed one as most extraordinary was how all the ground had been utilized although there were some four hundred acres. For instance, as one went down the terraced steps from the palace, after going down twelve steps there would be twelve feet of level ground and then steps again, and on looking back you could see that under each terrace were long hot houses containing different kinds of fruit vines and flowers. All the artificial lakes and fountains were stocked with fish and on our way back we noticed on all sides the deer scampering away for cover. The scenery was wonderful and all declared it to have been a day well spent and certainly much better than going to Bremen. We arrived back in Berlin just in time to entrain for Hamburg. The train was fitted up elaborately with radio, telegraph and telephone. In order to take advantage of such opportunity we sent a wire from the train as it was travelling to the other members of the party who were in Bremen and telephoned to Hamburg. Then whilst we were having dinner we had the benefit of the radio, but it was rather difficult to eat to the time of the jazz. We arrived at Hamburg in the pouring rain about 11.30 and we were quite willing to retire and call it a day.
